Recruitment criteria for SDNH under the project "Atari Demoscene. Platform, community, localness" (PI: dr hab. Piotr Marecki, Prof. UJ)

1. Recruitment shall be governed by the criteria specified in the resolution of the UJ Senate of 26.10.2022.

2. Additional recruitment criteria for the position in the above project:

- the candidate should have a Master's degree awarded by 20.02.2024.
- the candidate should demonstrate knowledge of 8 bit platforms (especially Atari). He/she should have programming skills, competence in media archaeology (e.g. working on documentation of digital works), ability in communicating research results and preparing summaries AND reports of research work.
- the candidate should have a very good command of the English language;
- the topic of the planned doctorate should be closely related to the research tasks of the project 1, 2, 3 and 5
- the results of the candidate's participation in the project should be prepared in the form of a monograph for publication in an internationally renowned publishing house