

Admission criteria to the Interdisciplinary Doctoral Programme in the Doctoral School in the Humanities supported by POB Heritage

1. The entire admission procedure is in English including interview with a candidate. All forms have to be also filled up in English.
2. The admission process is defined by the Jagiellonian University Senate (Act from 29/01/2020).
3. Additional admission criteria:
  - a) very good English skills (official certificate of C1 or C2 level or equivalents);
  - b) declaration that doctoral thesis will be presented in English;
  - c) declaration that doctoral research project will be conducted with a foreign academic/ research institution (indicated and justified in the application),;
  - d) Detailed justification of the interdisciplinarity of a doctoral research project along with indication of disciplines and related methodologies.