

Project Tasks

1. Study of written sources, part 1A: Septuagint – linguistic terminology
2. Scientific consultations in Cambridge and London (PhD student)
3. Study of written sources, pt. 1A: Septuagint – Biblical itineraries (textual evidence)
4. Scientific consultations in Leiden and Groningen (PhD student)
5. Study of written sources, pt. 1A: Septuagint - Biblical itineraries (archaeological data)
6. Scientific consultations in Münster (PhD student)
7. Study of written sources, pt. 1B: LXX (deuterocanonical) books
8. Study of written sources, pt. 1C: Pseudepigrapha
9. Study of written sources, pt. 1D: Philo
10. Study of written sources, pt. 1E: Josephus' books I-XI
11. Study of written sources, pt. 1F: Josephus' Antiquitates XII-XX
12. Study of written sources, pt. 1G: Josephus' Bellum and Vita
13. Study of written sources, pt. 1H: the New Testament
14. Study of written sources, pt. 1I: early rabbinic traditions
15. Study of written sources, pt. 1J: papyrological and epigraphic evidence
16. Scientific consultations in Münster (Principal Investigator)
17. Fieldwork – first season: preliminary research
18. Remote sensing [RS] and geographical information system [GIS] analyses – preliminary research
19. RS and GIS analyses – the seacoast road
20. RS and GIS analyses – roads in the Shephelah
21. Fieldwork – second season: roads on the seacoast and in the Shephelah
22. RS and GIS analyses – roads of Galilee, Golan, Batanaea, Trachonitis, and Auranitis
23. Fieldwork – third season: roads in Galilee
24. RS and GIS analyses – roads of eastern Idumea, Judaea, and Samaria
25. Fieldwork – fourth season: roads in eastern Idumea, Judea, and Samaria
26. RS and GIS analyses - roads in Peraea and in the vicinity of the Dead Sea
27. Fieldwork – fifth season: roads in Peraea and in the vicinity of the Dead Sea
28. Scientific consultations in Leiden and Groningen (Principal Investigator)
29. Creation of a GIS database
30. GIS analyses: network analysis and spatial analyses
31. Scientific consultations in Cambridge and London (Principal Investigator)
32. Scientific consultations at Jagiellonian University in Kraków
33. Synthesis of research (preparing the final monograph)